

Friday, May 3rd
12:00-1:00 pm

Be Inspired! A Reflection of our Professions' Impact on the Lives of Clients and Caregivers.

Join us as we kick off National Speech-Language-Hearing Month in Wisconsin. Our first webinar "A Reflection of our Professions' Impact on the Lives of Client and Caregivers" will set the stage for this valuable webinar series that's sure to inspire and invigorate you during National Speech-Language-Hearing Month and beyond. During the presentation we'll hear from several clients and their caregivers on how speech-language and hearing professionals have impacted their communication journeys.

Speakers:

Jennifer Eggert, MS, CCC-SLP, C/NDT
Clinical Assistant Professor
Marquette University

Disclosure:

Financial - Ms. Eggert is employed by Marquette University and receives a salary.
Non-financial – Ms. Eggert is the President of WSHA.

Kate Easton, EC: EEN

Early Childhood: Exceptional Education Needs Teacher/Service Coordinator
Penfield Children's Center

Disclosure:

Financial - Ms. Easton is employed by Penfield Children's Center and receives a salary.
Non-financial – No relevant disclosures exist.

T. Michael McNulty, SJ, PhD

Scholar in Residence
Marquette University

Disclosure:

Financial – Dr. McNulty is employed by Marquette University and receives a salary.
Non-financial – No relevant disclosures exist.

Learning Objectives:

1. Discuss ways to incorporate a sense of purpose and empowerment in your clinical role.
2. Describe ways to engage in empathetic listening.
3. Discuss the profound impact speech-language and hearing professionals have on clients and their caregivers.

Agenda:

5 mins – Introductions
35 mins – Client and caregiver journeys
20 mins – Q&A and Discussion

Wisconsin Speech-Language
Pathology & Audiology Association

Intermediate Level

.10 ASHA CEUs