How Does ASHA's revised Code of Ethics (2023) Affect Your Practice?

On March 1, 2023, the revised ASHA Code of Ethics (2023) went into effect. This presentation will set forth the changes made to the Code, and how they impact SLPs and AUDs working in schools, private practice, universities and hospitals. Additionally, we will discuss how to address common ethical issues, such as client abandonment, confidentiality, conflicts of interest, documentation and failure to practice with reasonable skill and safety, and review case studies that highlight common ethical dilemmas.

Katharine Meyer, Esq., is the Senior Director of Ethics at ASHA, and an ex-officio member of the ASHA Board of Ethics. Prior to coming to ASHA, Ms. Meyer was a Principle at GKG Law, P.C. in Washington, D.C. Her practice focused on certification law and ethics.
